Where to Practice Hygiene at Each of the Key Moments

			G
		Coughing & sneezing, talking, shouting, singing	Using the toilet	After handling & preparing raw food	Before handling food & eating with fingers	Clearing & cleaning up after a meal	Touching high- contact surfaces	Handling & laundering clothing & linens	Caring for pets & other domestic animals	Domestic waste disposal
Hand hygiene		\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark
Hand contact surface hygiene		\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark			\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark
Food contact surface hygiene				\checkmark	\checkmark
Cooking, eating & drinking utensils				\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark			\checkmark
Cleaning equipment hygiene		\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark	\checkmark		\checkmark	\checkmark
Laundry hygiene								\checkmark	\checkmark
Air hygiene	Social distancing Mask wearing Ventilation	✓ ✓ ✓
Others	Cleaning the toilet	e	\checkmark

© Content International Scientific Forum on Home Hygiene